

Fire Inspections Law Bulletin

HOW TO USE THE LAW TO PROTECT YOUR COMMUNITY!

Introducing FIRE INSPECTIONS LAW BULLETIN. This reporting service, written in plain English for you - the professional inspector, will show you how your colleagues have used the law to protect their communities from the consequences of fire code violations, and will keep you on the cutting edge of the most pivotal fire origin and cause legal issues.

The law is on your side - you must know how to use it! Each monthly issue will bring to your fingertips the most important lawsuits related to fire code inspections, fire investigations, and more.

Your exposure and your community's exposure to potential litigation over 'negligent' fire code inspections, improper preservation of evidence, unsubstantiated expert testimony, and tough sanctions for code violators has never been greater.

We will show you how many, if not most of these cases are won by the fire department, fire marshal, fire code inspector, or fire investigator. Just as important, we will show you how well intentioned mistakes can result in enormous legal expenses. How will the court decide? The stakes are enormous. Be prepared.
